

New Style 44 in Corian, a minimal idea for bright spaces

New Style 44 revolutionizes the control's concept through Corian front plates and exclusive toggle controls with illuminated feedback status.

AVE New Style is dedicated to free spirits, for those who seek true harmony in the purity of colour. This collection reflects the simple geometries of its toggle controls through white solid Corian front plates. A modern evolution for genuine and minimalist open spaces.

New Style 44 is the result of a precise choice: AVE meets the needs of the most demanding customers. First Italian Company that have introduced the touch technology to electric field, AVE is again innovative reinterpreting the way you turn on the light, today: New Style 44 retrieves the ON/OFF toggle system, making it topical again.

The best technology combines with unprecedented aesthetics and valuable materials to create a unique concept. The New Style 44 Corian series allows you to customize the controls through a complete proposal of electric diverters, buttons, rolling blind switches and switches with illuminated feedback status. In addition, not only the switches but also the shuko sockets recover the same innovative design, allowing architects and designers to propose aesthetically coordinated and complete solutions.

Available for both round and rectangular flush mounted boxes and so addressed to the wider international market, New Style 44 Corian series finds its perfect location between essential furnishings, in open space and minimalist environments, where it can return its bright white in a unique way. New Style 44 combines with Domus wiring accessories series, for those who want white elements, and TEKLA 44, the latest AVE wiring accessories series that increases flexibility, offering all 44 System solutions in opaque black/anthracite grey coloration.

New Style 44 is also available in glass and aluminium versions that complete AVE retro range with England Style 44 collection in wood. Three different proposals, each devoted to a different way of living and spaces' interpreting. Light up your style with AVE.
